

K-LOVE Radio is very spiritually encouraging to me and I am a financial donor to them. They advertise, for free, Christian concerts and events that my community would not know about otherwise. This radio station does not have crude talk shows, sexual innuendos, and other distasteful programming that children, and adults, should not have to be subjected to like most other radio stations. Thank you for your consideration.
Gwyn L. Reed